

Palestinian Youth-led initiative for engaging youth in policy making process

Part of

Arab Institute for Youth Policy Making

PALESTINIAN
institute for youth policy making

2012-2013

Introduction

The Palestinian Institute for Youth Policy Making (PIYPM) is the Palestinian chapter of the Arab Institute for Youth Policy Making. PIYPM aims at promoting Palestinian youth participation in the policy and decision making processes. We offer a wide variety of programs and activities that help youth acquire unique skills and knowledge to become agents for change in the Palestinian society.

Message

Energizing Palestinian youth participation in the political life in Palestine and helping them build the future democratic state

Vision

To be a leading youth institute that contributes to the building of generation of Palestinian youth who are ignite to participate in policy making

Goals

- Enabling Palestinian youth political participation and policy making providing them with knowledge and skills needed
- Informing and educating the Palestinian youth and the Palestinian community about the youth political participation
- Empowering ICT utilization for mobilization and policy making in Palestine
- Opening windows for understanding between the Palestinians and the world to educate them and learn about each other

Principles

- Democracy
- Participation
- Equity
- Justice and Rule of Law

Values

- Honesty and integrity
- Transparency and accountability
- Liberty and freedom of speech
- Professionalism and quality

Target Group

Intellectual Palestinian Youth who wants to build a career in:

- Politics
- Economics
- Social work and non-profit
- Media, culture, and education

Focus Areas:

Domestic affairs, Economy, Education, energy and environment, foreign policy, and defense

Programs

1. Log in Politics: the aim of this program is to give the opportunity for Palestinian youth to express their thoughts, beliefs, and ideas freely on the virtual world and to help them mobilize for their ideas.
2. Pal-Traveler: a unique adventures sharing program offered by PIYPM to Palestinians youth where they will be able to share their traveling experiences with their peers and learned lessons
3. Let's Talk Palestine: an online initiative that aims to provide Palestinian youth and youth from the world to share their ideas about the Palestinian-Israeli conflict using facts and scientific arguments away from political fragments

4. Debate club: Is a regularly held club that will be responsible for opening the window for Palestinian youth to share their ideas and thoughts face to face with their peers, public figures, government officials, community leaders, and others. The club activities include but not limited to: Guest speaker, film screening, books reviewing, debate sessions, and panels
5. Capacity Building and training: is a key program of PIYPM. The aim of this program is to provide skills and knowledge for Palestinian youth to help them engage in political life. Our training courses includes but not limited to: Effective communication and dealing with the public, writing influential essays, video blogging and social media utilization, introduction to economics, understanding politics, and cultural diversity.
6. Israel Highlighted: a program aims to inform Palestinian youth about Israel history, politics, society, and ideology.
7. Conferences, seminars, workshops, and panels

Partners

- Egyptian Institute for Youth Policy Making
- Moroccan Institute for Youth Policy Making
- Lebanese Institute for Youth Policy Making

Contact details

To contact PIYPM feel free to email:

piypm.com@gmail.com

Follow us on Facebook

<https://www.facebook.com/PIYPM>